Ojén is an authentic white Andalucian village situated on the mountainside just above Marbella. Here you have a completely self contained community although Marbella with all its facilities is only about 5 - 10 minutes drive. The apartment is located in a modern building and offers easily managed one bedroom accommodation.

The building has automatic portage and the apartment includes an entrance hallway leading to a lounge/dining room which in turn leads out to the covered terrace. There is a galley kitchen with built-in oven, hob and fridge/freezer plus a utility room with washing machine and drier. The bedroom has fitted wardrobes and access to the terrace and the adjoining bathroom has a bath with shelf over.
